Autumn is finally here and that means life around PRBC is getting ready to get very hectic, but for good reasons. I hope you and your family had a great Summer and that the beginning of Autumn has been kind. As I reflect back on the actual church year, I have so much to thank God for. This past church year we welcomed 45 new members to our church family. Baptisms were down for us this year, but we still saw 27 people follow in believer's baptism. Through your generous and faithful giving we have seen the highest level of general giving ever. This past January we began our Sunday evening grow groups welcoming nearly 160 people to our discipleship ministry. This past February we welcomed over 220 men to our men's conference. Let us all pause and praise God for His kind and gracious works. As I reflect I do not want us to grow complacent in what God has done, but let us be motivated to see and experience even greater things. On Sunday, October 7th I will be sharing with the church a 5 year vision which I am calling 5 in 5. I hope you will make plans to attend that day and bring someone with you as I vision cast and share what God has laid on my heart for our church over the next 5 years. Also, this year we are going to have an evangelism challenge. I am calling this challenge "Who is your one." I am asking every member and regular attendee of PRBC commit to leading one person to Christ this next church year, and as your one follows up in believer's baptism to stand with them as they are baptized. What a great sight to see people baptized and to see the person who was instrumental in their coming to faith next to them. Do you realize if everyone of us would commit to this challenge of leading one person to Christ our church could double in one year? So, who is your one? As always, I covet your prayers and am grateful to be your pastor.

Grace and Peace,

Pastor Geoff
