Easter Celebration

Christ Has RISEN!

Where do I begin this newsletter article? There is so much I want to share, so many exciting things happening here at PRBC. First, I want to wish each of you a happy April and say how nice it is that Spring is upon us. I absolutely love Spring, especially seeing the flowers and all the new growth that is visible to each of us. I am excited to see the growth at PRBC over the last month. God continues to bring us so many new people not only from Baker, but Crestview as well. I want to remind everyone of the new members class that will be held Sunday, April 3rd at 2pm. This class is for anyone who is a new member or who is considering church membership and would like to simply learn more about the church. Currently we have 6 people signed up with others telling me they are going to sign up. You can find the sign-up sheet on the welcome table as you enter the Worship center. Second, I want to praise the Lord for the baptisms we had during the month of March. God is working eternally in the lives of people here and baptism is the outward showing of what God is doing inwardly.

Now that April is here that means two big things for us- Easter and Homecoming. I am so excited about both this year. Easter is April 17th and I want to encourage each of you to invite at least 1 person to attend either the 8:30 or 11am service. Easter is a wonderful time to invite our unchurched family and friends as we celebrate the resurrection of our Lord. Homecoming is the week following Easter, April 24th. Remember we have only 1 service that day which is at 10am with a meal to follow. This year we are calling our Homecoming celebration "Home for Homecoming." It truly is going to be a special day that you will not want to miss as we celebrate where we have been but also where God is leading us.

Finally, I want to encourage each of you to remain faithful. We live in a world and time that many find scary and for some people they simply want to retreat. However, as the church, as people of God this is a wonderful time for us to move forward and for us to be the church. I encourage each of you to get involved in Sunday School, Grow groups, and the other small groups that we have. I want to encourage you, unless providentially hindered, to make a commitment to be here each week because we need you here. The Bible says Iron sharpens Iron so one person does to another. We need each other's sharpening and encouragement and that can not happen unless each of us are here. I also want to encourage you to remain faithful in the area of giving. With the economy the way it is there is perhaps the temptation to retreat in this area as well, but we must remember that God owns it all and that He PROMISES blessing and provision when we are faithful and He NEVER breaks a promise. What a time for us to trust God, to take Him at His word and see Him once again keep His promises. Let's make April the best month of the year so far in all these areas; small group attendance, worship attendance, giving, and all the rest.

As always, I covet your prayers and am grateful to serve as your pastor. Have a great month.

Pastor Geoff
